WHAT THESE SERVICES ARE
Lash extensions, lifts, lamination, tinting and brow shaping are cosmetic. Results are temporary and need upkeep.

DURING YOUR VISIT
You lie still, eyes closed, for lash work. Opening them early can let fumes or solution in.

PRODUCTS USED
Lash glue (cyanoacrylate), lift and lamination solutions, tints or henna, and wax. Each can cause a reaction.

Possible risks

Allergic reaction. Puffy, itchy or red lids or skin from glue, tint or solution. Can start after many visits.

Eye irritation. Red, watery or stinging eyes from fumes or product, usually gone within a day.

Infection. Rare with clean tools and good aftercare. Watch for discharge, swelling or pain.

Natural lash or brow damage. From heavy extensions, over-processing, picking or pulling, or skipping fills.

Over- or under-processing. A lift or lamination can turn frizzy, kinked or too weak, or set unevenly.

Skin reactions to wax. Redness, lifting or tenderness, bumps, ingrown hairs, rarely a burn or bruise.

Uneven color or shape. Tint and henna take differently on each hair and skin type and fade at their own pace.

Retention varies. Hormones, oily skin, steam, sleep habits and aftercare all change how long lashes last.

Tool injury. A slip of tweezers or scissors near the eye is rare but possible if you move suddenly.

Product in the eye. Flushed right away with sterile saline. Seek eye care if pain or blurred vision lasts.

Tinting note: in the US, no color additive is FDA-approved for dyeing lashes or brows. Any tint or henna is used off-label at your informed choice, after a patch test. Some states restrict lash and brow tinting.

Results depend on your natural lashes and brows, growth cycle, skin oiliness, hormones, medications, lifestyle and how closely you follow aftercare. Lashes shed naturally every day, so extensions need regular fills.

Please initial each statement

	Initials
I've read the risks above and had my questions answered. No specific result has been promised to me.
My health history is true and complete, and I've listed all medications, eye drops and lash serums.
I'll remove contact lenses, keep my eyes closed and still, and tell you right away if anything stings or burns.
I approved my lash or brow design, length, curl or shade before the service started.
I've completed a patch test, or I've signed the patch test waiver and accept the added risk.
I'll follow aftercare and contact you, and a healthcare provider, if signs of infection or allergy appear.
I won't remove extensions myself. Removal by a professional may cost extra.
I release [Your Business Name] from claims caused by details I withheld or aftercare I skipped, as [State] law allows.
I am 18 or older, not under the influence of alcohol or drugs, and signing of my own free will.
